Letters Of Appreciation from Network Marketing Course Graduates Some of my team members and myself have attended the following training. This course is definitely telling us much much more than we learnt from our TNI NDO or NDT. Last year, I paid $600 plus to attend Randy Gage Two days Diamond Weekend did not even cover much on the &ldquo;How to&rdquo; skill. In the following course I learnt a lot of &ldquo;how to&rdquo; skill and techniques which are very useful. Just the magic & power of questions is worth the value of the course. Therefore, if you know your reason why you take up the opportunity in Network Marketing, then it is about time to learn the &ldquo;how to&rdquo; proceed with your business. Please feel free to contact me if you need more information. Best regards, M. K. I learned how to write email messages another ROM for prospecting. Definitely I going to send out email by this week to a group of 10 friends and see whether what you teach us is effective. No harm trying each ROM and see what works for me. The next 3 important things I learned is listening, objections and closing skills. I planned to practice that with my business partner once I received the 60 questions from you. I have been making cold calls and meeting merchants but am unable to close any. Next time presentation must asked my business partner along and help me spot the mistakes that I make. Regards, S. H. Throughout the 2 days training session, I&rsquo;ve learned a lot and the most important lesson that I&rsquo;ve learned is &ldquo;it is just a waste of my time, my ink and my paper after attending the session if I do not apply what I&rsquo;ve learned to the real life business&rdquo;. So, I am trying to apply what I&rsquo;ve learned as much as possible when I meet up with prospect. Another thing I really like in the session is the magic and power of questions. Good questions are very important and my uplines always remind me of &ldquo;asking better questions”;. However, this is not an easy task. So, I’m still learning how to ask better questions and at the same time learn to categorize them accordingly e.g. perspective questions, learning questions etc, so that I can clearly understand the reason why I wanna ask that question instead of others. Yupz, that’s all what I would like to share with you. J S. Y.

First, I want to thank you and tell you that I thoroughly enjoyed the 2-day training. I really got very good positive vibes which for some reasons are not as strong and even negative at times when WE are in a smaller group. Please explain trainer? I am lost. I’ve already been applying most of the Sales techniques in my present job as a World Booker. What I need is a “kick” every time I procrastinate. Would u kick me, my trainer? The objective of my attending the training was to strengthen and shorten the time it takes to make my million in club2020 by leveraging on your training. How can I send anyone for a course that I myself have not taken and do not know anything about. I ALWAYS am the first guinea pig myself before recommending it to others. That’s a sign of leadership – lead by example, right my trainer? S. S

Hi Pal, I learn how to take control of my own life. Get focused. Waste no time. Apply what successful people have done and use these as my own. There is so much to learn that I think it is best to put theories into practice. That way I can learn and gain more experience. It is experience and sharpening of my skills that I can bring along throughout my life. I firmly believe that this can work. I know that there are many people who are still living in reality and not dreaming of the dreams they had for themselves when they first touched Club2020. Dreams of total financial freedom, more personal time and early retirement. I want to have residual income. I am a pioneer in Club2020. I have got a good leader that is you. Great things need to be done by great people. Best things will only belong to those that seize the opportunity. I want to break away from having to sell products in traditional MLMs. This Club2020 gives me the edge to cover the truth about businesses. Bring customers to companies to create repeat businesses and benefit for both customers and business owners. These are the fundamentals of all businesses. Knowing the bosses of companies narrows my gap to become rich. I for one believe that to know a boss you have to be a boss. Where to get the leverage to become a boss so easily? H. C
